ABOUT THE FORUMS

The Oklahoma Coalition for Affordable invites our community partners to join us in bringing Regional Housing Forums to Ardmore, Enid, Midwest City and Tulsa during August-September 2017. Your sponsorship promotes your organization as a leader in affordable housing and ensures government officials and nonprofits can attend, regardless of budget constraints. Forum sponsors receive recognition at the event and may provide flyers for distribution to attendees. Sponsorship opportunities are available for single days or multiple locations. Join our Forum Hosts: Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City, FDIC and Oklahoma Coalition for Affordable Housing in sponsoring one or more of the Regional Housing Forums. Attendance will be complimentary to all.

Goals of the 2017 Regional Housing Forums are to educate a range of industries ---architects, attorneys, bankers, city planners and managers, developers, nonprofit agencies, REALTORS® and other affiliates--- on assessing and building capacity, identifying stakeholders and financing local affordable housing developments. Community stakeholders will gain an understanding on what “affordable” means in relationship to homeownership, neighborhood stabilization, community progress, zoning and existing infrastructure. Participants attending the workshop will leave with an Affordable Housing Development Toolkit.

The Forums will highlight low to moderate income demographics which includes our teachers, first responders, police and fire staff, city and county staff, retail employees, amongst many others.

Speakers include:

- Bryce Lowery, Professor, University of Oklahoma
- David Puckett, JLL Valuation Services
- Gloria Reynolds, FDIC
- Steven Shepelwich, Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City
- Michelle Tinnin, Native American Program Specialist, U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, Southern Plains Office of Native American Programs - Invited

To sponsor a Forum or Series of Forums, please complete the Sponsorship Form and return to:
